

Activity

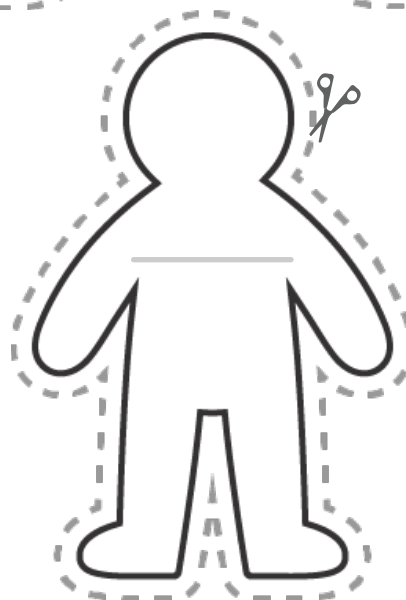

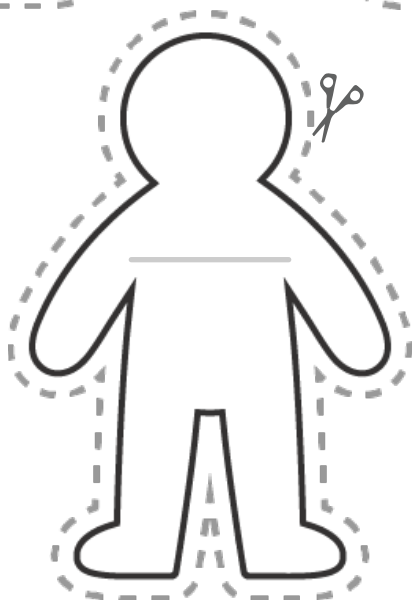

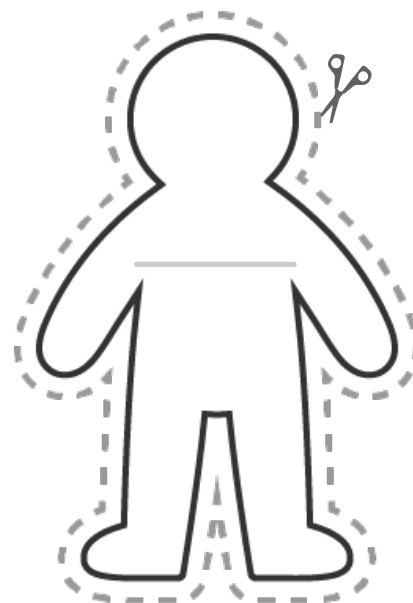

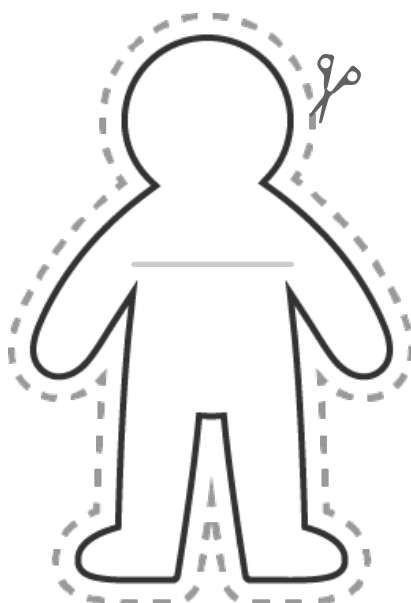

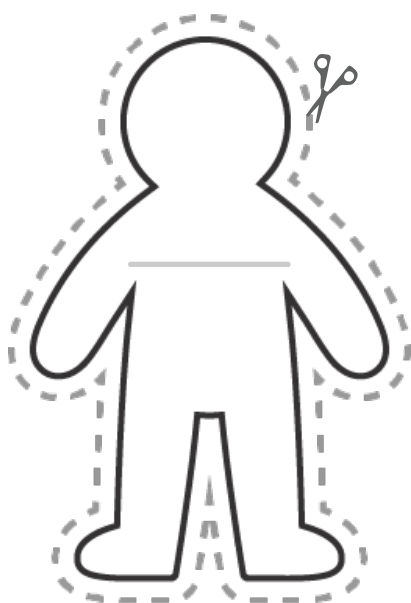

Every January, we celebrate Martin Luther King Jr. and his achievements. Dr. King promoted a message of kindness and equality for all that we still celebrate today. For this activity, learners will have the opportunity to reflect and share how they want to make a difference in the world.

INSTRUCTIONS:

- 1) Brainstorm the different people in your life that you would like to help. Write their names on the blank figures below.
- 2) Think about how you would help these people in your life and write your answer on the earth (page 3).
- 3) Color and cut out your people and the earth.
- 4) Glue or tape your people around the earth.
- 5) Share your positive message to make a difference with others!
